

1. Love your pet with new activities. Even older dogs like new toys or a new activity. Try something you have not done with your dog before. Frisbee, agility, runs, a game of fetch.....these are all activities guaranteed to stimulate your dog's interest.

2. Love your pet with an exercise plan. The winter weather gets all of us in a exercise slump. Once the snow and ice have passed, the time is right to shed those winter pounds! Pampered Paws Pet Sitters can help with the exercise plan. Extra pounds can cause many health problems for dogs, young or middle aged.

3. Love your pet with a diet plan. Maggie is a trained nutritional counselor on pet foods and healthy diets. Exercise and the proper nutrients will help your dog feel like a champion! Nutrition is as important as exercise, be informed on what you are feeding your loved ones!

4. Love your pet with a special bath and groom. Did you know soap based shampoos can strip the natural oils in your dogs skin and dry them out? Make sure you or your groomer are using a oatmeal based shampoo for soothing your pets skin. There are many wonderful choices, try an Aloe and Oatmeal bath to love your pet!

5. Love your pet with a check-up. The veterinary visit is crucial to a happy, healthy pet. An annual check-up is recommended for best care for your loved ones. Vaccines are not given every year now but that does not mean your pet should not see the vet, just like humans, we all need an Annual Exam from a doctor. Pampered Paws Pet Sitters have a Pet Taxi service if you need a helping hand.
